

Accountability Questions¹

In between today and our next session you will meet -at least once- with your accountability partner. To ensure focused learning, to keep you on track and to give your accountability partner the permission to challenge you, think about which questions you'd like your accountability partner to ask you about your goals and action plan, when you meet with her in the next month.

Consider questions that ...

- Help you think deeply about what is happening, or happened and what you noticed
- Hold you accountable for your actions-or lack thereof
- Challenge you
- Look at the issue/what happened from another's perspective

Questions I'd like my accountability partner to ask me ...

¹ Adapted from Peer Coaching Overview by Andrew Thorn, Marilyn McLeod and Marshall Goldsmith